World Mission Sunday

What is World Mission Sunday?

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal to support overseas mission and missionaries. It takes place in every single parish worldwide where the Church is present. In Ireland, Missio Ireland is tasked with organizing the Mission Sunday collection. Missio Ireland is the Popes official charity for overseas mission.

For Mission Sunday 2024, Pope Francis has chosen the theme 'Go and invite everyone to the banquet'. Mission, he said, is a tireless going out to all men and women, on order to invite them to Shrines to be refurbished.

Please note that the shrines will be removed in stages to be refurbished.

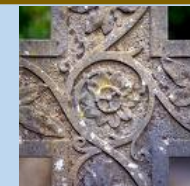

During the period of their absence there may not be a shrine at your favourite saint's statue. To light a candle in honour of the saint, just place it on the nearest shrine. Your favourite saint will know your intention.

The first collection for the priests last weekend came to €565 and the second collection for SHARE came to €400

Praying With The Scriptures

In preparation for the Holy Year which will be celebrated by the whole church in 2025, Pope Francis asked that 2024 be observed as a "Year of Prayer". To help us appreciate this opportunity to grow in our relationship with God, Fr Anthony O'Leary CP will be offering three sessions at Mount Argus on "Praying with the Scriptures". These will be held in the St Charles Centre, beside Mount Argus Church, on three Tuesdays in October, beginning at 7.30pm. The topics are: Cries from the Heart – Psalms, our inspired Prayers (October 15); The Praise of his Glory – Prayer in the New Testament (October 22). This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about the Scriptures and to deepen our life of prayer. All are welcome. Fr Anthony was Associate Professor of Sacred Scripture at the former Milltown Institute and invited lecturer at St Patrick's College, Maynooth and Carlow.

Vocations Society of St Joseph (formerly St Joseph's Young Priests Society)

The next meeting will take place in the Parish Centre; following 10 am Mass, on Friday the 18th of October. We pray for Vocations and financially support Seminarians studying for the Priesthood. We need new members, so please come, join us on the day, and help with this very important work.
